Washington, 30. Feby. 1836.

Gentlemen,

Your very polite invitation to attend the celebration in Cincinnati, the 4th. of March next, <sup>given on account of the deliverance of this country from the Bonds of</sup> must be declined <sup>on account</sup> of the pressing character of my public engagements.

But it affords me great pleasure to comply with your request to forward a sentiment for the occasion —

With much respect & regard

Yours Ob. Serv.

The People of the United States — The unparalleled success of their free institutions and their victory over those, which are not free, will present to the world the strongest evidence that man is capable of self-government.
